EIGHT JURORS ACCEPTED FOR THE ERLIN CASE

Woman Pleads Not Guilty to Charge of Murdering Husband at Henderson.

Henderson, Ky., Oct. 4.—After the examination of eighty-five veniremen today eight jurors have been accepted by both the defense and prosecution in the trial of Mrs. Zarah J. Eblen on the charge of the willful murder of her husband, Bain W. Eblen. To complete the panel Judge Henson, of the circuit court, ordered another venire summoned to appear tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Eblen entered a formal plea of not guilty and waived arraignment. The trial was begun at 10 o'clock this morning and the selection of the jury proceeded with up to closing hour of the court this afternoon. Those of the jurors who had been accepted were placed in charge of the sheriff. In view of the fact that there will be quite a good deal of testimony concerning the alleged immoral relations of Matie White and Bain Eblen, a petition to the court is being circulated asking him to exclude all persons 16 years and under. The hearing of the testimony will be commenced about noon tomorrow and Matie White, the main witness for the prosecution, will be head and quite a number of character witnesses have been summoned by both sides.

WELLINGTON BERRY MAKES GOOD

Young Earlington Negro Offered Splendid Position by Register of United States Treasury.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 5.—It has been announced by J. C. Napier, here, who was recently appointed to the position of Register of the United States Treasury by President Taft, that he has tendered the place of private secretary to D. Wellington Berry, a young Nashville negro.

Young Berry gained considerable prominence in connection with the arrangement of the details of the recent tour of Booker Washington over Tennessee. He is an expert stenographer and has also been connected with a daily newspaper as special correspondent.

Wellington Berry is a son of Henry Berry, an employee of the St. Bernard Company here. The former worked for the company some time ago. During his stay here as an employee, he proved to be an industrious, intelligent and faithful young man.

Honesty in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by King & Son.

Hot on Trail of the Dynamiters.

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—The net thrown out by the authorities appears to be closing in rapidly on the dynamiters of the Los Angeles Times. "It is certain that the dynamite, which we know was secured at Giant, was taken to Los Angeles, and that it was the same dynamite used in the destruction of the Times building and in the bombs found at the Zeehandelaar and Otis residences." This statement was made by Attorney Earl Rogers, of Los Angeles, who is in charge of the man hunt.

RAINFALL IS VERY HEAVY

More Than Five Inches for Twenty-Four Hours Ending Thursday Morning.

INTERESTING RECORD FOR THIS YEAR BY MONTHS TO DATE.

Loch Mary is full again and overflowing. When the big rain came Wednesday night the water stood but little higher than was the old high water mark before the dam was raised. And the clouds had a task to perform in shedding enough moisture to run her over. But they did the job thoroughly and safely. A steady, heavy downpour lasted throughout Wednesday night, and put two feet of water over the 120 acres of the lake's surface. Yesterday morning at seven o'clock the rain gauge at the local weather station showed 5.60 inches precipitation for the twenty-four hours. Some of this fell Wednesday but most of it came during the night. And this was on top of 1.06 inches for the previous twenty-four hours. The rainfall for this year has been remarkable in its distribution. July had the heaviest rainfall, with 12.01 inches; March the least, with but .37 inches. August showed a little better than March, with .70 inches. The amount for April, May, June and July totaled 24.91 inches. August and September were fine, open months in which the farmers have had the best opportunities to prepare and seed their fields and farm work is well up. The rainfall for the year by months, is as follows: January, 4.68; February, 4.72; March, .37; April, 7.02; May, 3.86; June, 2.82; July, 12.01; August, .70; September, 1.09; October to October 6, 6.73. Total to October 6, 7 a. m., 43.20.

If the child starts in its sleep, grinds its teeth while sleeping, picks at the nose, has a bad breath, fickle appetite, pale complexion and dark rings under the eyes; it has worms; and as long as they remain in the intestines, that child will be sickly. WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE clears out the worms, strengthens the stomach and bowels and puts the little one on the road to health and cheerfulness. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, drug department.

NOT SO BAD AS HE EXPECTED

Young Man's Nice Bunch of Excuses Were Not Needed After All.

There is a young man in Dallas, whose work keeps him up until the small hours of the morning, which is rather an awkward time, inasmuch as he has but recently taken unto himself a wife.

But the lady knew of these hours, and he is not expected until very late.

A few days ago this man met an old friend, and over a cigar after working hours, they discussed the past, present and future until daylight's gleams began to show rosy over the house-tops. Then the young man with speed made for his home, fearful of his reception.

On hearing his habitation he discovered a bright light in the window, and excuses born of desperation began to circle through his head. He was in for it this time sure.

He decided to tell the truth as being more nearly satisfactory than a lie, and with this good resolution in his head he threw open the door and beheld a sight that filled him with amazement.

Upon a chair, with her skirts tucked about her feet, sat his wife. The lamp was turned too high and had smoked the chimney.

On his entrance she precipitated herself into his astonished arms and wept.

"It was right over there," she said, weeping. The man started.

"What was?" he demanded.

"A m-m-mouse," explained the lady. "It came out of the closet soon after you'd gone, and I've been up here ever since."

It's the World's Best.

GRIEF ON THE HENDERSON DIVISION

Passenger Trains Detoured on Account of Washouts.

NO. 51 DUE AT NORTONVILLE 4:40 P.M. ARRIVED THERE 8:30 A.M.

On account of the exceedingly heavy rainfall Wednesday and Wednesday night causing washouts at South Diamond, New Empire and Pembroke, the train masters and dispatches had the time of their lives getting trains over the road. To add to the trouble a car in a freight train broke down at Ridge Top thus making bad matters worse.

Passenger train 61 due here at 4:12 found a washout at South Diamond a few miles south of the place and had to back up to Atkins and go over the M. H. & E. to Norton, then over the I. C. to Nortonville, arriving at Nortonville at 8:30 a. m. Thursday morning.

Train No. 64 from Nashville detoured at Nortonville over the I. C.

On account of the wreck at Ridge Top, No. 93 Florida Limited due here at 10:38 p. m. went over the I. C. to Central City, then over the O. & N. to Russellville, then over the Memphis Line to Bowling Green and from Bowling Green to Nashville over the second division.

The washouts have all been repaired and trains are now running as usual, it takes more than three or four washouts to tie up trains for any length of time on the Henderson division as this division has the best set of officers and men of any division on the whole system.

LEGAL BATTLE BEING FOUGHT

Fight Over Opening of Proposed Bethlehem-Anson Road.

One of the most important road cases that has come up before the county court for months, is now holding the Bethlehem-Anson road case and has been before the court since Tuesday morning and the legal fight is still going on.

As to whether or not the county has sufficient money to stand the expense attached and the damages wanted by the farmers through whose land the road will run, is the question. The road has been surveyed and everything is ready for it to be opened.

Regulates the bowels, promotes easy natural movements, cures constipation—Dew's Biscuits. Ask your druggist for them. 50c a box.

Days of the Party Organ Are Numbered.

The fate of the Nashville American furnishes further proof that the days of the newspaper which is the mere mouth piece of a political clique are numbered, says the Owensboro Inquirer. Whenever the people of this day realize that they are supporting the organ of a lot of political grafters they quit and subscribe for a newspaper which has principles and ideals higher than the personal aggrandizement of a lot of political corruptors.

To be respected a newspaper, must be honest and whenever it becomes the organ of a coterie of political grafters it ceases to be honest. It becomes the organ of plunder and special privileges for the few instead of the champion of the rights of the many.

The American had survived nearly 100 years, and in that time had outlived its usefulness as a representative of the whole people. The time had come for it to die, therefore no surprise is expressed at its demise.

Others will be added to the graveyard of departed disreputable newspapers as the people become wise to the loathsome disease of duplicity and dishonesty which afflicts other newspapers of the country.

THERE IS A REASON

Why it pays to advertise in the SEMI-WEEKLY BEE:

It reaches a large number of wage earners who take no other paper.

It has an almost exclusive circulation in a community where $50,000.00 in money is paid out each month.

It is read by hundreds of people who buy what they want and who have money to pay for what they buy.

The only way to get your advertisement before the people of Earlington, Morgans Gap, St. Charles and immediate vicinity is through the medium of the Earlington Bee. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Electrical Economies in the Home.

"It is your own fault that your light bills are too high," remarked the electrical engineer. Every night when you turn on your lights a monster called Absorption gumshoes into your house and steals eighty-five per cent of your light. The wall paper in this room is dark green, the woodwork is stained a chocolate brown and the furniture and furnishings are very dark. They all combine to steal away most of your light. You have to pay for the light your lamps actually give, but in reality you get only fifteen per cent of the light you pay for, because you are being systematically robbed by the wall paper and woodwork, the chair and rugs."

Soon after this the house was repapered in light buff tints and the woodwork was painted white. As a result of this change the electric light bills were cut in halves. Seventy-five per cent of the candle-power of each lamp was being utilized, consequently it took less than half the number of lamps to light the room.

Go into most any home and you will find some one following you about turning down or turning off the light, trying to economize on light and paying no attention to costly errors which make the light bills excessive.

As a rule light fixtures are stuck in any old place to suit the whims of the architects and the economies of the electrical contractor. Wall papers and paints are selected to please the eye instead of for their light reflecting qualities. Without delving into the horrors of wall paper color and design suffice it to say that if care were taken in this respect many a hard earned dollar would be saved on the monthly light bills. Cheap wall paper of a dark and greswome hue is about the dearest thing any one can put into a room.

SMOKE SIGNALS OF INDIANS

How the Redman Communicated With His People and Warned Them of Danger.

The traveler on the plains in the early days soon learned the significance of the spires of smoke that he sometimes saw rising from a distant ridge or hill and answered from a different direction. It was the signal used in rallying the warriors for an attack, or warning them for a retreat.

The Indian had a way of sending the smoke up in rings or puffs, knowing that such a smoke column would at once be noticed and understood as a signal, and not mistaken for the smoke of some camp fire. He made his rings by covering the little fire with his blanket for a moment and allowing the smoke to ascend, when he instantly covered the fire again. The column of ascending smoke had said to every Indian within thirty miles, "Beware! An enemy is near!" Three smokes built close together meant "Danger." One smoke merely meant "Attention." Two smokes meant "Camp at this place."

Frequently at night the settler or the traveler saw fiery lines crossing the sky, shooting up and falling, perhaps taking a direction diagonal to the lines of vision. He might guess that these were the signals of the Indians, but unless he were an old-timer he might not be able to interpret the signals. The old-timer and the squaw-man knew that one fire-arrow, an arrow prepared by treating the head of the shaft with gunpowder and fine bark, meant the same as three columns of smoke puffs. "An enemy is near." Two arrows meant "Danger," three arrows, "The danger is great." Several arrows indicated, "The enemy is too powerful for us."

Fine Point in Legal Testimony. "So," said the judge, "you say that you never went to Chicago from Hunteville. Now, this is a very important point in the case, and I give you one more chance to explain, for you and Snyder were seen on the same train. Now, be precise."

"No, sir; I never went to Chicago." "Didn't Snyder go?"

"Yes, sir."

"And you were with him. Now, out with it."

"Yes, sir," answered the witness, after a pause. "You see, I told the truth, because it was this way: We sat opposite each other. He faced the engine. I didn't go to Chicago. I just backed away from Hunteville."—Woman's Home Companion.

"Don't know what they be?" he grinned. "Well, you are a back number. Negligee shirts ain't quite so stiff and crotch as a V-neck shirt—I mean a regular hard billed shirt. A negligee shirt is something you might call a soft billed shirt."—Woman's Home Companion.

HOW IS THIS FOR OLD HOPKINS COUNTY?

A prominent Kentucky citizen, on his recent visit to Carlsbad, Germany, for his health, was informed by the leading physician, under whose directions he was drinking its famous waters, that "he had read the analyses of all prominent Springs of the United States and Canada, and that in his opinion Hamby's genuine Dawson Springs Water at Dawson Springs, Hopkins county, Ky., was the best, and he thought he would not be saying too much to make the assertion that it was superior to any in Europe for Liver, Kidney, Bladder and Stomach troubles." He like hundreds of others, has used HAMBLY'S WATER as a last resort and been cured.

"IF YOU SEE IN OUR AD IT IS SO"

The above is the familiar slogan that has greeted the readers of our advertisements for a long time. We have always lived squarely up to this business slogan, but it has never been so forcefully demonstrated or better brought before the people as now, when we are making the final settlement on the 1908 Warehouse Receipts.

A year and a half ago, when we advertised that we would take the Farmers' Warehouse Receipts in payment for merchandise, and would give in merchandise every penny that the Association paid, we meant just what we said.

Last May when the Association made a partial payment, we advertised that we would pay in merchandise all that was due on each Receipt, and we meant just what we said.

Out of over one thousand farmers of Hopkins and Webster counties, whose Receipts we held, only a small percent came in for this partial settlement, thus showing an increased confidence in our straight forward way of dealing with them, by leaving this balance with us until the final settlement.

We very deeply appreciate this confidence reposed in us by so many substantial citizens, and if Fair Dealing and Honest Business Methods will do it, we propose to continue these intimate business relations thus established.

Our store is well stocked for the Fall and Winter with new and desirable merchandise, and we desire to have the opportunity of showing nearly every one who comes to Madisonville before they make their purchases.

Let our store be your store.

Nebo Happenings

A nice shower Sunday evening.
A. M. Barnett is still on the sick list.
Mrs. J. B. Peyton is sick with malaria.
Frank Nickols went to Madisonville Monday.
Tom Townsend, of Stanhope, was here last week.
Very little wheat sowed. Dry weather the cause.
George Eudaley went to Madisonville last Thursday.
Eble Hartman, who has been sick for a month, is still a very sick boy.
Methodist will begin a meeting in Nebo the second Sunday in October.
A wedding among our neighbors is one of the forth-coming events of the near future.
Mr. Hobgood, who has been building Dr. Ferguson's new house, is taking rest this week.
Bro. Costello, of the C. P. Church, is preaching a series of sermons at that church this week.
An association of the Missionary Baptist church will be held at Johnson Island church this week.
E. E. Walker went to Clay last week and bought a new wagon. He is as proud of it as a negro boy would be a hand pup.
Do you like sorghum molasses. If so, come down and bring a jug. The smoke of the evaporators is seen in every direction.
Tobias Lisman and wife, who formerly lived here, but now of Providence, were here last week calling on their old friends.
Bro. Savage preached at the Christian church Sunday and Sunday night. During intermission he went somewhere, guess where?
Farmers report a good corn crop. In some localities it was damaged by too much rain, but the average yield will be fine, the best in several years.
Some of the ladies of the C. P. Church met at the church last week and gave it a thorough cleaning and not before it was needed. Many thanks, ladies.
A protracted meeting will begin at Rose Creek Thursday night and continue for time indefinitely. Services will be conducted by Bros. Costello and King.

Yanney Oakley, who has been digging wells in the town seems doomed to bad luck while digging one for J. B. Peyton. He got his bitt hung and broke the frame containing the machinery.

Frank Nickols' little daughter, who fell and broke her elbow, is getting along nicely. It was feared that she would have a stiff elbow, but under the careful treatment of Dr. Setzer, she will have complete use of it.

To the man who prints Ten Buz: Did you ever have chills? If not, why not? Should you want a few we can supply you. We would be willing to try to get along without any at all to accommodate a friend. A man who never had the chills does not know how good he feels when he gets well.

While engaged in sinking a well for Dr. Ferguson, something got wrong with the machinery and broke a large cast wheel into less than a hundred pieces, we suppose, as we did not stay to count them, as we had urgent business in the cellar, to which we hastily retired and remained until things got quiet and quit raining pieces of casting.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create, makes one feel joyful. Sold by King & Son.

The Hole in the Coal Bin.

Heat, the scientists tell us, is but a form of energy consisting of rapid to and fro vibrations among the molecules of matter. Whether this accepted theory be true or not, the average householder is ready to swear that the heat supply in the modern home is the result of untold energy represented by the dollar which vibrates through the pocketbook to the coal man.

Fuel for heating the house and cooking the food is a very costly item in the course of a year. Coal costs about $7 a ton in many places, and any hints which will help to get the most heat every out of this precious material meet with the instant approval of every householder.

Let us first put on trial that black, iron tentacle octopus in the basement!

The appetite of the average house furnace would make a cannibal chief, ready to dine off the fat lady of the circus, die of envy. Coal thrown into its yawning, red maw produces nothing but ashes and backache. All the average man knows about a hot air furnace is that hot air rises, and when it refuses to do this natural phenomenon has only resources in perspiration, profanity and more coal. But there was a man one day who reasoned that the fire was not at fault and fell to causing the hot air flues. In the end he resolved to make them draw, whether or no, so he purchased a small electric fan for about $10, cut a hole in the cold air shaft, put the fan inside and started it going. The result was that the fan forced the hot air through the pipes in a fine circulation and the house was soon warm. Now, whenever the furnace does not work properly, he does not waste his coal but presses a button and the fan does the trick.

'LIZA MARY JANE O'CONNERS.

Liza Mary Jane O'Connors. Graduated with high honor; She mastered the curriculum; Also the art of chewing gum, Mathematics never fazed her, And metaphysics always pleased.

The science and languages—She dreamed about them, so she says, And never owned to feeling glib.

About the vast curriculum! Her men tutors could not resist; In fact, she had such winning ways.

She skipped examination days! And did exactly as she chose And wore to school her Sunday clothes.

Of knowledge crammed she knew a lot, But always used her well-worn trot, And always stirred up a sensation.

By haddling in correct translation, At last 'mid strains of music rare, She lightly tripped the rostrum stair.

And took her sheepskin tied with ribbon; Although she did some frightful shall call.

But now she's duly graduated! And Nineteen Ten her "skin," is dated.

Ah, soon she'll hang it on the wall, And when her friends, perchance, shall call.

They'll read within a gilded frame Her somewhat ultra classic name.

Women worry, can't do daily work.

Men have lame and aching backs.

"TOOTING - OUR - OWN - HORN"

If we don't "toot our own horn" occasionally as we pass through this old world no one else will toot it for us, so here goes:

We wish to call your attention to the kind of a semi-weekly we are getting out, and also to the fact that your name should be on our list if not already there. We want you to examine the Semi-Weekly Bee this week, or any other week for that matter, and compare it with any other county paper of its size and see if it does not compare favorably as to local news, upholding morality and supporting every laudable and legitimate enterprise in the upbuilding of the town and county. We give you 104 papers a year for one dollar, and we try to give you a good, clean paper full of short, crisp news items and some advertising, all of which is reliable. The Semi-Weekly Bee is a busy bee and hums in the hive of industry. If you are not a subscriber, we would like to have you join us before the 1st of November, and we will give you a ticket entitling you to a chance on the $30 Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet to be given away on that date. By paying only 50 cents extra you get a triple colored piece of blue and white granite ware or one of Roosevelt's Thrilling Experiences in the Wilds of Africa, worth $1.50. To every one who is in arrears $2.50 or more, we give one ticket on the cabinet for every dollar paid and the book or granite ware free. Come to the office and examine these premiums. They are good value and they are here for you. If you do not get one it is not our fault.
